Dear Parent/Carer,

RE: Pennies for Peace.

Last week Vanessa Davis, a past teacher and good friend of the School, addressed the Children during an assembly to promote 'Pennies for Peace'. This campaign is organised by Pax Christi, the Church's Peace Movement, and its main concern is to support innocent victims of war around the world. We support this campaign each year by collecting pennies (and other coins) in a container of your choice and presenting the money collected at the beginning of a special Peace themed Mass at St Pius X. This year the Mass will be on 10th February at 11am. This coincides with the First Holy Communion programme Mass which has the theme of Peace. This gives the children 2 weeks to collect any loose change they can find at home or from family or friends.

If you are unable to attend the Mass, you can send the money in to School and we will present it at the Mass for you.

There will be a reminder nearer the time but if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me at the School.

Yours sincerely,

Tony Lynch

Deputy Head
