

Handwriting in KS1

In Key Stage 1, children will begin to use lead- ins and lead- outs (cursive lowercase letters) in preparation for beginning to join their letters in a joined cursive style. They will continue to focus on ensuring correct letter formation, pencil grip and posture. Once children can form letters securely, and with the correct orientation, they will be taught to write with a joined style.

Cursive lowercase letters

